RALLY! FRIENDS OF FREEDOM!

FOR

FREE SOIL, FREE SPEECH, FREE PRESS,

FREMONT!

THE PEOPLE are invited to join in a grand

RATIFICATION MEETING

On Thursday Evening, June 26th,

ON MARKET SQUARE,

At 7 1-2 o'clock.

WILLIAM BROSS, and FRANCIS A. HOFFMAN, of Chicago, together with several other eloquent, speakers from our own City and State, will address the meeting upon the exciting topics of the day.

The meeting will convene on Market Square at the playing of the Bands and the firing of Cannon, at about 7½ P. M.

After the close of the proceedings there will be a grand TORCHLIGHT PROCESSION! in which all are invited to join.

LET THE PEOPLE RALLY IN THEIR STRENGTH! and allow no circumstances to keep them from being present on this occasion.

Ratification Meeting To-Night!

Above will be found a call for the friends of Freedom in Milwaukee to turn out for an expression of sentiment upon the subject of the nominations at Philadelphia—of the admirable Platform there enacted—to listen to addresses from able speakers, and to congratulate each other upon the cheering prospect. All are invited to attend and participate, who feel that the time has come for a thorough Union against Slavery-extending, filibustering, Harbor-neglecting, Sham Democracy. In the name of that democracy which their leaders have disgraced, many a democrat will be there to lend his voice to swell the note of condemnation. The Republicans, who have seen their party, organized only two years, gather strength on this issue till it is ready to grapple with the old dragon of Slavery, will be there to ratify the nomination of their candidates. The Old Free Soilers, who have seen their principles progress thus far, will be there. The old Whigs, such of them as ever held or now hold to any respect for the name of HARRY CLAY, the author of the words at the head of our columns, will be there. The Germans will testify by their presence and participation in the proceedings, their interest in the good cause which has obtained the enthusiastic support of a majority of the German presses of the nation; and, not to enumerate further, the men of every nation, gathered here, will be represented on this occasion, by those among them who love their Adopted country better than any party, and Freedom rather than Slavery.

If the weather is propitious, such a gathering will be seen as has not been seen in Market Square for many a day.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN CONVENTION—ITS NOMINEES AND PLATFORM—FREE SPEECH—FREE TERRITORY—FREE MEN AND FREMONT!

NEW YORK, June 20.

The National Republican Convention has met, deliberated, acted and adjourned, having well and faithfully discharged the trust confided to its hands by the Freemen of the Republic. It is difficult to speak, or write, in terms of moderation, of the glorious incidents of this remarkable political gathering. The like of it has never been seen in these United States, and none who witnessed can ever forget the prominent scenes of the memorable Three Days during which the Convention was in session. Long before this letter can reach you, the nimble lightning will have informed the readers of the Sentinel of the action of the Convention; but neither lightning, nor types, nor tongues can adequately describe the admirable spirit which pervaded the assemblage, from first to last, or the heart-stirring enthusiasm with which the platform and the nominees of the Convention were received and adopted. I shall content myself with a brief record of these eventful scenes.

The Delegates commenced assembling in Philadelphia several days before the Convention met, and by Monday noon the Quaker City was already crowded to overflowing. Canvassing among the friends of the prominent candidates was most active, and a large number of members of Congress were on the ground, urging the nomination of Judge McLEAN. It became known, early on Monday, that neither Gov. SEWARD, of New York, nor Gov. CHASE, of Ohio, would be pressed by their friends; so that the choice, from the outset, was between Col. JOHN C. FREMONT, of California, and Judge McLEAN, of Ohio. The friends of each were sanguine of success, and earnest in advocating the claims of their favorite. It was speedily apparent, however, that the prospect of uniting the opposition to the PIERCE dynasty and the Pro-Slavery party would be much better with Col. FREMONT, than with Judge McLEAN; and as victory was only regarded as possible by the union of the different elements of opposition, this consideration, added to Colonel FREMONT'S well-known and openly avowed opinions in favor of Slavery restriction, decided the contest.

The Convention assembled at 11 o'clock on Tuesday morning, in the Musical Fund Hall, a fine apartment, capable of comfortably accommodating upwards of three thousand persons—Long before the hour of meeting, the Hall was crowded to excess; there being nearly a thousand Delegates and alternates in attendance, and several thousand interested spectators, inside and outside the building. The Chairman of the National Executive Committee called the assemblage to order, and after a fitting introduction, proposed, as temporary Chairman, ROBERT EMMET, of New York, a worthy son of the illustrious THOMAS ADDIS EMMET, of Ireland. The selection was ratified by an unanimous shout of applause, and the appearance of Judge EMMET on the platform was hailed with repeated and enthusiastic cheers. His opening speech was able, impressive, and exceedingly appropriate. The preliminary organization completed, the Convention proceeded to choose its Committees on Credentials, a permanent Organization, and on Resolutions; each Delegation naming its own representative on these several Committees. You will have seen the lists of officers, &c., before this, and I therefore only remark that WISCONSIN was represented by Judge PORTER, of Walworth, on the Committee on Resolutions; by Senator HARVEY, of Rock, on the Committee on Credentials; by Dr. DAVIS, of Columbia, on the Committee to select Officers; by WALTER D. MCINDOE, of Marathon, among the Vice-Presidents, and by C. C. KUNTZ, of Sauk, among the Secretaries. The morning session was brief, and on re-assembling in the afternoon, the Convention permanently organized by the choice of the Officers, recommended by the Committee. The President, Col. HENRY S. LANE, of Indiana, a Western Pioneer, on taking the Chair, made a capital and characteristic address which was received with a perfect storm of applause. The Committee on Credentials reported a list of 576 Delegates; every Northern State being fully represented, (three for each Congressional District, and six for the State at large,) and there being delegations also from Delaware, Maryland, Kentucky, Virginia, the District of Columbia, the Territories of Minnesota and Nebraska and the State of Kansas. The last named Delegates, on entering the Convention, were welcomed with rapturous cheers.

As it had been determined, by a unanimous vote, to adopt the platform before nominating candidates, and the Committee on Resolutions requiring the afternoon and evening to do their important work, there was no business for the Convention to transact, after it had chosen its officers, &c., and, therefore, two or three hours were profitably directed to speech making. Several admirable addresses were made, all touching upon the great issues of the Canvass, and one or two upon the relative merits of the Republican candidates for the nomination, and the spontaneous responses of the audience to these, very clearly and unmistakably indicated the current of the popular policy. Senator WILSON, of Massachusetts, whose speech roused the enthusiasm of the Convention to the highest pitch, alluded in turn to the four prominent names before them, and while those of FREMONT, M'LEAN and CHASE, elicited cheer after cheer, that of WILLIAM H. SEWARD called forth one of the most striking and gratifying demonstrations I have ever had the good fortune to behold. At that loved and honored name, the entire Convention, as well as the vast audience which crowded the outside seats, passage-ways and alleys in the Hall, rose instinctively and simultaneously to their feet, and for several minutes the thunders of their enthusiastic hurrahs fairly shook the building and reverberated through the city. Any man living might have been proud of such a testimonial of regard and admiration; and to none could it have been more fittingly paid than to that true and tried champion of Freedom, WILLIAM H. SEWARD, of New York.

The Convention adjourned at 5 P. M. Tuesday, and re-assembled at 10 A. M. Wednesday; the interval having been occupied in friendly interchanges of opinions among the different delegations, as to the selection of the right man for the standard bearer. The first thing done, on the second morning, was the adoption of the PLATFORM. It was reported by DAVID WILMOT, of Pennsylvania, Chairman of the Committee on Resolutions, and each resolution, as it was read, was ratified instanter by an unmistakable outburst of applause and approval. A brief discussion took place on the last resolution, (in favor of Liberty of Conscience and Equality of Civil and Political Rights, among all citizens of the Republic, native and foreign,) which resulted in its being made stronger and broader than originally reported. This, like the rest, was adopted by acclamation and without a single dissenting voice.

The Convention, having thus happily and harmoniously settled its Platform, proceeded to the selection of the Candidates who were to be placed upon it and presented with it to the suffrages of the American People. A scene of great interest and excitement here ensued. First, New York withdrew the name of WILLIAM H. SEWARD; next, Ohio withdrew the name of S. P. CHASE, and last, Pennsylvania withdrew Judge M'LEAN. This left but one candidate before the Convention, JOHN C. FREMONT; but Judge M'LEAN'S friends insisted on still keeping his name in the field, and ultimately withdrew the withdrawal. At their earnest solicitation, and without taking a ballot, the Convention, at half-past one o'clock, adjourned to 5 P. M.

On the first thing on re-assembling was the informal ballot for President. This was taken amidst comparative silence; each delegation being called in turn, and announcing, through its chairman the vote of the State. The New England States and New York went almost en masse for FREMONT; Pennsylvania, New Jersey, Ohio, Delaware, Indiana and Illinois mainly for Judge McLEAN; Michigan, Wisconsin, Iowa, California and Kansas unanimously for FREMONT. The result of the first ballot was decisive; JOHN C. FREMONT received 359 votes to 196 for Judge McLEAN, and a few scattering. A formal ballot followed, when every State, in turn, gave its vote for FREMONT, who was therefore declared the unanimous choice of the Convention. A scene of the wildest excitement followed; for full ten minutes the Hall rang with enthusiastic cheers, which were echoed and re-echoed from the streets, and testified unmistakably to the zeal and spirit with which the Convention and the People hailed this selection. At 7 o'clock, the Convention, having done a good day's work, adjourned till 10 A. M., on Thursday.

The evening was spent in friendly and earnest consultation in reference to the Vice Presidency. Many prominent names were mentioned and some zealously pressed. The Illinois delegation warmly urged the claims of ABRAHAM LINCOLN, a veteran and honored whig of that State; New Jersey presented the name of WILLIAM L. DAYTON, one of the truest and ablest of her sons; New England and New York had no special favorite, while Pennsylvania was divided in opinion. When the Convention met on Thursday morning, the current had begun to set quite strongly in favor of JUDGE DAYTON, of New Jersey. The Wisconsin delegation, after a free conference, resolved to sustain him, as a candidate entirely acceptable to the West and specially pressed by New Jersey and Pennsylvania.—On the first informal ballot, Judge DAYTON received very nearly one half the entire vote of the Convention, and on the formal ballot every State and every Delegate voted for him. His nomination was thereupon declared unanimous and once more the Hall rang, again and again, with enthusiastic cheers.

The work of the Convention was now accomplished; its Platform laid down and its candidates selected, and with a degree of enthusiasm and unanimity unparalleled in the history of American politics. Some capital speeches followed from gentlemen representing different interests and different sections of the Republic. Maine and Vermont led off with a glorious promise for November. OHIO, thro' Judge HOADLEY, gave notice of One Hundred Thousand majority for the ticket and platform. NEW YORK declared her purpose to maintain, in the Republican ranks, as in the political scale, her proud position of Empire State. The East and West vied in pledges of earnest, united and triumphant support to the cause of "Free Speech, Free Territory, Free Men and Fremont." Judge EMMET spoke well for his Irish fellow-citizens. Mr. DORNHEIMER, of Buffalo, Mr. REENFLIN, of Ohio, and Messrs. SCHNEIDER and GRIM, of Illinois, answered eloquently for the Germans, expressing their conviction that a majority of the German Press and German People of the U. S., would enlist under the banner of the Republican Party. MICHIGAN, thro' Gov. CHANDLER, pledged the Sailors of the Lakes to the support of the ticket, and the cause of River and Harbor Improvements. KANSAS and CALIFORNIA gave assurances of rousing majorities for Fremont and Freedom. From all quarters indeed, the intelligence was most satisfactory, and when finally, at 3 P. M. the Convention adjourned sine die, with nine rousing cheers for their cause and candidates, the Delegates separated in the full conviction that a vigorous campaign alone was necessary to ensure Victory to our Standard. Such is already the popular belief here, as shadowed forth, not only thro' the Republican, but the Independent press. "Young America" is coming out, in full force, for its favorite and representative candidate, JOHN C. FREMONT, and already the minions of Slavery and the opponents of Free Speech, Free Press and Free Territory, tremble under the apprehension of defeat. R. K.

A Short Catechism on "Conservatism."

Conservative Democrat.—"Come here my son. Who is the Democratic candidate for President?"

John.—"James Buchanan."

C. D.—"Well, Johnny, why is he the best man for President?"

J.—"Because he is prudent and conservative."

C. D.—"Very well, my son; how do you know that he is so?"

J.—"Because he joined in the Ostend Conference."

C. D.—"Right, Johnny! Now what other prudent men were there?"

J.—"Pierre Soule, Dan Sickles, and George Sanders."

C. D.—"And what did these prudent men say?"

J.—"They said that if we wanted Cuba, and Spain refused to sell it then by every law, human and Divine, we shall be justified in wresting it from her, if we possess the power."

C. D.—"Good! Was there any other mark of prudence that you remember?"

J.—"Yes. They said that if the Cubans should raise an insurrection, 'no human power could prevent the people and Government of the U. S. from taking part in it.'"

C. D.—"Well Johnny, you know that Mr. Buchanan stands on our platform—what does that say?"

J.—"That the Democratic party will expect of the next Administration that every effort be made to insure an ascendency in the Gulf of Mexico."

C. D.—"That will do for this time, my boy."—Exam.

Our Relations with England.

The tone of the leading presses in England, as well as of the speakers in Parliament, as appears by the last steamer, is very encouraging for continued peace. We have never anticipated any other result, for although it was clear that, for the sake of operating upon the Cincinnati Convention, the Administration would push matters to the extremest limit, yet we held it morally certain that at that point it would back down, and listen either to prudence or fear.

The news of Mr. Crampton's dismissal had reached England, but not the official dismissal.—The leading press seem to indicate that Mr. Dallas may not be dismissed, but allowed to remain in the discharge of his duties, the English government awaiting meanwhile some proposition from this country for the peaceable settlement of the pending questions.

SENATOR SUMNER'S CONDITION.—A PRETTY WITNESS.—The Hunker press has for some time been full of mean and dastardly attacks upon Mr. Sumner's reputation as a man, charging him, on the testimony of one "Dr. Boyle," with pretending to greater injuries than he received, and remaining in the house long after he might have been in his place in the Senate.

It turns out that this Boyle is an intimate friend of Brooks, the murderous villain who assaulted Mr. Sumner—that he was in the Hall at the time of the attack—that he rushed into the street after it was over, declaring that Sumner was not much hurt—and that he, the identical Boyle, became one of Brooks' bail! A pretty witness against the honor of Charles Sumner!

Gov. Bradford's Staff.

The following [illegible] who compose Gov. Bradford's Staff, as far as appointments have been made. Quite a number yet remain to be appointed:

Adjutant General—Amasa Cobb, of Mineral Point.

Quarter Master General—H. C. Bill, of Madison.

Inspector General—Thos. Stephens, of Dodgeville.

Commissary General—V. W. Roth, of Madison.

Judge Advocate General—F. L. Buttrick, of Milwaukee.

Aids—W. D. McIndoe, of Marathon; Wm. S. Grubb, of Dane; D. A. Olin, of Milwaukee, and Geo. S. Dodge, of Rock.—Madison Journal.

☞ A DOUBLE MURDER.—The widow of Keating, the servant at Willard's Hotel, Washington, who was shot down by Herbert, the Locofoco Representative in Congress from California is dead, leaving behind her several orphan children.—The shock of her husband's death, and the praying of grief at his loss, have hurried her into an untimely grave. Thus the double murder is complete, and the murderer, shielded from the penalty of his crime by the votes of the Locofoco members of Congress, still sits in the House to make laws for the Republic.

RACINE FOR FREMONT AND DAYTON.—The Racine Advocate brings a full account of the enthusiastic meeting held in that city on Saturday evening last, to ratify the nominations. The attendance was large and the feeling excellent.—A call is issued for a County Ratification Meeting to be held at Burlington, on Saturday of this week, where the organization of the county for the campaign will be completed.

THE FREMONT BANNER.—A correspondent of the Boston Atlas suggests that inasmuch as the Buchanan men talk of putting a sheaf of wheat on their banners, (Wheatland being the name of Mr. B.'s farm,) the Fremont banners bear a thrashing machine.

☞ The committee to raise money and equip crusaders for slavery in Kansas, reported to the citizens of Charleston, S. C., on the 13th instant, that they had received $9,500, and spent "for the South" $8,928. They had armed and shipped to Kansas 73 men.

Working at the forge,—in the machine shop—in the harvest field, and getting more than "ten cents a day" at that.—Chicago Journal.

SUP'T N. Y. & ERIE R. R.—Mr. MCCALLUM, the capable and energetic Superintendent of the N. Y. & Erie Railroad, with Mr. GREENWOOD, the General Ticket Agent, were in town yesterday.—They went to Madison in the afternoon, we believe.

HON. Charles H. Ruggles, an old Democrat, one of the ablest jurists in New York, and until recently a Judge of the Court of Appeals, declares for Col. Fremont.

CARD.

To the Editor of the N. Y. Tribune:

SIR:—The undersigned, Delegates from Kansas to the Republican National Convention now in session in this city, in answer to frequent inquiries concerning the truth of certain rumors impeaching the fidelity of Ex-Governor Reeder to the cause of Kansas, take this mode of expressing our unhesitating confidence in his devotion to the true interests of our unfortunate State, and our firm conviction that he will never intermit his efforts in behalf of Freedom, and our belief that when a man, by long service, severe sacrifice, and exposure to personal peril, has fully proved his devotion to a great principle, the friends of that principle should not be too ready to credit rumors circulated by his enemies to his prejudice.

STATE UNIVERSITY.—Courses of Lectures are now in progress in the University, and will continue through the summer term, on the following subjects: On the Physical Sciences and their application to Agriculture and the Arts, daily at 10 A. M., by Professor CARY; on the Art of Teaching, Mondays, Wednesdays, Fridays, at 5 P. M., by Professor REED; and on Physiology, Tuesdays and Thursdays, at 4 P. M., by Professor FUCHS.

These courses are open to the attendance of citizens and strangers, and bear their own testimony to the manner in which the university is doing its duty to the public.—Madison Journal.

THE GREAT INUNDATIONS IN FRANCE.—The sudden and widespread overflow of the Seine, Rhone and Loire rivers and their tributaries has done immense damage in France. The correspondent of the N. Y. Tribune says:

At Lyons, whose dense population, crowded into a tongue of land between the angry Soane and Rhone, or huddled in close faubourgs on the opposite banks of these streams, has suffered most extensively, it is loosely estimated that 20,000 persons were washed out of house and home, and more than 5,000 buildings were undermined and ruined in the course of thirty-six hours.—The number of lives lost can as yet only be guessed at. The terrors of the disaster were heightened by the fact that the inundation rose to its most destructive height in the night. Rushing upon some of the meaner quarters of the town, it awakened wretched sleepers to more than their wonted daily sorrows. The most they could do was to flee for mere life, leaving their poor scraps of property to the devouring flood. Amid the hard struggles for life, we hear of numerous instances of the noblest acts of devotion performed by nameless or unknown persons, police, soldiers, workmen or workwomen, forgetting themselves to help and save others. To do them justice, men of higher estate—for officials are Frenchmen and human—did generous service.—In some of the churches, fitly turned into temporary asylums for the houseless, priests proved themselves true servants of God by constant ministration of physical and spiritual comfort—not interrupting their good work for twenty-four hours together.

News of the great distress having reached here on Saturday, the Emperor left Paris that afternoon and reached Lyons next morning. There he traced the same desolation wherever the streets were passable, often fording to his horse's knees, and distributed looks and words of encouragement and substantial pecuniary aid. He afterwards visited other flooded towns, sometimes making his way for long distances in a boat, marking his progress everywhere by gifts of money and other proofs of active sympathy.—His goodness and generosity are as much lauded as his policy deserves to be on the occasion. He gave 100,000 francs for the use of the sufferers from his so-called "private purse;" 200,000 more he decreed from the public treasury. On Monday, the Legislative body voted an appropriation of two millions. Her Majesty has subscribed 20,000 in her own name, and 10,000 in that of her boy.

STOP THAT LIE!—The New York Express, a Fillmore organ, copies and endorses a statement from the Washington Star, a Buchanan paper, that Col. FREMONT is a Roman Catholic in religion, and that his friends are playing a double part in relation to it. The following, from the New York Tribune, sets this matter at rest, once for all, and administers a severe rebuke to those to whom it applies:

The Star, which is thus dragged into the service of the Express, is as unscrupulous in its devotion to Slavery-extending Democracy as is the Express in its labors in behalf of South American-ism. Each is animated by the bitterest and relentless hatred of the party which has placed Col. Fremont in nomination for President. And while we have been hearing Col. Fremont's character and position canvassed pretty freely for the last six months, we solemnly aver that we have never, up to this hour, heard any friend proclaim him a Roman Catholic, or raise any question whatever concerning his religious faith. On the other hand, his adversaries have been constantly setting afloat this story of his being a Catholic, and, when refuted and silenced, they would let it rest for a week or two and then start it again. Col. Fremont was baptized, reared, and confirmed in the Protestant Episcopal Church, to which he has ever adhered; and we challenge the Express to prove that "his friends are riding both sides of the fence," and "are playing for him a double part" on this subject. If such "friends" are known to the Express, as its article necessarily implies, that paper can name them, as we now dare it to do. We object entirely to any inquiry into the religious faith of a candidate for office; we hold it at war with that Constitution which the Union-savers affect so to revere; we do not believe, and never sought to know, what is Mr. Buchanan's—as Mr. Douglas's faith; and, though we happen to know that Mr. Fillmore is a Unitarian and have an impression that Mr. Breckenridge attends the Presbyterian Church, if any, we consider all this entirely a matter between these gentlemen respectively and their Maker, and sheerely pity the narrow bigotry of the man who would vote for or against either of them on grounds of religious faith.

THE OPINION OF JOHN C. FREMONT.—The Negro-driving Democrats will endeavor to show that Col. Fremont is just now what they will be after the election—nobody at all; that one who is known and honored throughout the world, and who has shown in every undertaking of his life, genius, energy and perseverance, will be found uniting in political opinions. These progressive gentlemen have great objections to a fresh man: they prefer mossy, venerable, may we not say, fossil-Admire gentlemen, like Mr. Buchanan, who, in gained political experience by joining and leaving all parties; who knows what Federalism by being a Federalist, and who: "Democracy" by being a Democrat; who has supported the Missouri Compromise and is now opposing it; who went against "Free Trade and Sailors Rights" in his youth, and is a strong war-democrat now. We must confess that Col. Fremont is not had the experience of Mr. Buchanan, and we are very glad of it; for such an experience would be enough to finish him in the first week of the campaign.

But while we denies that he holds and has expressed intelligent opinions; that he has studied the wants of the country and understands its best interests; grossly slanders one of the ablest and most honest men in America. He exhibited in California good executive talents; he studied politics under the most favorable auspices and while the people were laying the foundations of a State; he was promoted once to the highest office which a State can confer; and he showed himself, in the foresight and sagacity which successfully opposed the introduction of slavery into California, a thousand times the political superior of men who have grown grey in subservience to the institution. He is a plain, outspoken man; he thinks we ought to have a National road, and he does not muddle the question as the Cincinnati platform builders did; he thinks we ought if possible to keep slavery out of Kansas, and he says so, without any Douglas bamboozling about squatter sovereignty. He talks enough, but he is not always talking; he writes enough, but he is not always writing—Boston Atlas.

AN ATTEMPT TO GET TWO WIVES.—A man named Abner Knapp came from Milwaukee a day or two since, having run away from his wife and four children in that city, on Saturday last, with another woman. Officer Smith, of Milwaukee, came in pursuit of the parties, and traced them to the Hamilton House, where they had taken rooms. The fugitives having left there in time to dodge the officer, he applied to Capt. Connett, who put Lieut. Shockly of the First District on their track, who caught Knapp near the Court House and locked him up. The prisoner denied all knowledge of his victim, whom it seems he seduced under promise of marriage, but her whereabouts being ascertained, the accused was taken back to Milwaukee Monday afternoon, and his victim returned to appear as a witness against him. The deluded woman says that Knapp told her he was not married, but would become her husband in Chicago. The couple passed as husband and wife in Chicago.—Chicago Press.

MATRIMONIAL ROMANCE—EMIGRATING WEST.—When Recorder Smith was presiding in the Court of Sessions yesterday afternoon, a beautiful girl aged about 17 years, was brought from the prison, and placed before him on a charge of vagrancy, preferred by her own parents. When his Honor inquired into the matter, he found that the girl had been committed by her father and mother, in order, if possible, to prevent her from marrying a man they did not approve of. The Recorder was about to discharge her, when he was informed that at that moment a gentleman from Wisconsin was in waiting in the ante-room, in order to run off with her and marry her in that State, when liberated. His Honor did not wish to send her adrift in the world under such circumstances, but called up the man, and said if he was sincere in his professions he might marry her here, and then take her West. The lover joyfully consented, and Recorder Smith having descended from the bench, performed the ceremony.—N. Y. Commercial.

GERMAN BANK.—We take pleasure in announcing that a Bank of issue with the above name will be opened in this city, about the 1st of July next, with a capital of $25,000. The institution is owned by Messrs. John Ewing and J. H. Mead of this city, late of Finley, Hancock Co., Ohio, where they have for some years past been engaged in the Banking business, and Tomb, Case & Co., Bankers, of Tiffin, Seneca Co. Ohio. It is organized under the provisions of our excellent banking law, with John Ewing as President, and Jas. H. Mead as Cashier.—Sheboygan Times.

CAMP DEARBORN.—The arrangements for the accomodation of the military guests next week are being pushed forward rapidly. The sutlers tents, dining hall, &c., &c., are already erected, and the note of preparing the different quarters is heard on all hands. The grounds selected are of the finest in the neighborhood of the city.

We learn that the Illinois Central are to run trains half hourly from 5 A. M. to 4 P. M., to the camp ground.—Chicago Journal.

Murders in Kansas.

Last Sunday when we were encamped near Palmyra, and after a party of dragoons under Capt.—— had ordered Gen. Whitfield's invading army to disperse, we saw a Free State man named Cantrell, arrested by a detachment of the the Missouri force.

He was going to a store for butter when seized by the mob.

It has been discovered that he was brutally murdered in cold blood near the camp of the invaders as Bull Creek.

A Kentuckian in their camp saw two men take him into a ravine. One of the men is a well known Westport ruffian.

A few minutes afterward, he heard a shot and a man exclaim—"Oh, God! oh, God! They have shot me."

Another shot. No words this time—only agonizing shrieks.

A third shot. All was silent. The two men returned without the prisoner.

Another Pro-Slavery man came into camp a day or two after, saw the body, (which he accurately described,) asked what it meant?

"Oh!" said one of the law and order assassins, "there are two or three other Abolitionists in the same fix down there."

Three bodies have been discovered in the ravine.

On Wednesday a traveller from Missouri saw seven dead bodies lying on the road between Westport and Palmyra. The locality is a sufficient indication of the politics of the unfortunate men.

There is a rumor—but I have not had time to trace it—that the bodies of three men were seen hanging from a tree, near Fish's hotel, on the the Shawnee Reservation. A camp of Missourians is on the reservation.—Lawrence Cor. Chicago Tribune.

THE MURDERER HERBERT IN THE CINCINNATI CONVENTION.—It has been iterated and reiterated over and over again, that Herbert, who killed the Irishman Keating, at Willard's Hotel is a K. N.; it has also been denied that Herbert was in the Cincinnati Convention. This assertion and this denial are put at rest by Mr. Bowles, of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, who was a reporter at that Convention. Mr. B. says:

Mr. Herbert, of California, who killed Mr. Keating, the Irish hotel waiter, was at Cincinnati, and in the Convention as a delegate from California. I saw him several times, once occupying a prominent position upon the platform.—And the demand of Thomas D'Arcy McGee, in behalf of the Irish Democracy of the country, that he be expelled from the Convention, was treated with contempt, and was not even laid before the body by its officers.—Pittsburgh Chronicle, 17th.

☞ The spirit of patriotism and freedom is aroused in the hearts of the people. A farmer in the vicinity of this city, formerly a staunch old democrat, was in town a few days ago with a load of wheat to sell; 75 cents was the best offer he could get. He said he would not sell for that price, but if the load was wanted for the friends of liberty in Kansas, every kernel would cheerfully be given.

A SOUTHERN EDITOR'S OPINION.—As a distinguished southern editor, who has been passing some days in the city, was leaving town a week or two since, a friend of ours in bidding him goodbye said: "Well, Colonel, the Republicans are going to nominate Fremont against your friend Buchanan." "Yes," replied the Colonel, I think very likely they will; and if they do, he will run Buchanan to his saddle-girths."—N. Y Mirror.

☞ The Boston Courier objects to Fremont that he cannot show the people "even ostensible claims or merits to entitle him to their suffrages." It is very true that Buchanan can show ostensible claims, but his merits in that matter appear to be those of a highwayman.—Boston Chronicle.

MARRIED.

In Wauwatosa, Waushara Co., Wis., June 22d, by Rev. HENRY HANMER, Mr. GEORGE WILDER, to Miss CAROLINE A. PHILLIPS, both of Plover, Portage Co.

DIED,

At Summit, on the 15th inst., Mr. MARY A. WORTHINGTON, wife of the Hon. Dennison Worthington, formerly of Albany, N. Y.

Were not often called to part with one who leaves behind to large a void undilled. Possessing those estimable qualities and Christian graces which endeared her to a large circle of friends, and bound by strong ties to her large family, yet trusting in Jesus, her Saviour, whom she had long loved, she could leave all and joyfully, yea, triumphantly commit husband, children, friends into his hands, and enter the dark valley, rejoicing in the assurance of a glorious immortality. VOLUME XI. MILWAUKEE DAILY SENTINEL, THURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 26, 1856. NEW SERIES.

THE DAILY SENTINEL.

Thursday Morning, June 26.

CITY MATTERS.

POLICE COURT, JUNE 25.

BEFORE CLINTON WALWORTH, POLICE JUSTICE.

George Lawson, disorderly, fined $2; Barney Franion, drunk and disorderly, fined $5; Stephen E. Willis, disorderly, case continued to June 30th, at 9 A. M.; William Ahearn, drunk and disorderly, fined $3; Patrick McGrath, violating dray ordinance, fined $5 and costs; Butler & Bowers, case held open; Lester Hanson and Hiram Potter, shooting in city limits, each fined $1 and costs.

A WOMAN POUNDER PUNISHED.—A man named John Easley, who works at the Straight Cut, was brought in on a warrant by Constable Ryan, the charge against him being a savage and brutal assault and battery upon a woman named Catharine Dawson. The evidence showed that the woman went to the open yard where the timber is hewed, &c., at the Straight Cut, and had spread her shawl on the ground and partly filled it with chips, when the defendant, a powerful looking man, told her not to take the chips—which the evidence showed were not his—and caught hold of one corner of the shawl and threw them out, str king her; she put the shawl down again, and the defendant upset it again, and kicked her, then struck her several blows on the head; followed her away from the yard, and kicked her again, and followed her up across the road, kicking and striking her, with his hand clenched in her hair, and hastening her teeth with blows in her mouth; her head answered with blood and grown to pieces. The Court fined him $25 and costs, amounting in all to $31.53.

William Thompson, who was fined yesterday for drunkenness, was again brought up and had to pay $5 for being drunk.

MILWAUKEE HORTICULTURAL SOCIETY.—The first Exhibition of the Society for the season takes place this afternoon and evening, commencing at 5 o'clock P. M. The Members of the Society have labored long and faithfully to build up a taste for and cultivate skill in the raising of flowers, fruits and vegetables, and the gardens of our city are now in a condition to present a fine show of such productions.

We shall hope to see a large gathering at the Hall this afternoon and evening.

VISIT OF CHICAGO ENGINE CO. NO. 4.—The steamer Cleveland, chartered for the occasion, brought yesterday afternoon on a visit to their brother firemen of this city, Engine Co. No. 4 of Chicago, accompanied by a large party of ladies. Our firemen turned out in gala dress and goodly numbers to meet them, and escorted them up from the boat, the boys of Nos. 4 and 6 dragging the machine of their guests along. The ladies were conveyed in half a dozen omnibuses provided for the occasion.

The guests were escorted to Young's Hall, where an ample collation was laid, and enjoyed to the full by the Company.

COL. WOOD'S COLLECTION OF WONDERS.—The town is all agog with eager curiosity, to see the strange collection of people which Col. Wood presents to the public at Young's Hall to-morrow. Daughters of Anak, who dine from third story window sills—infinitesimal Thumbs, Lilliputian humans—women and children, bearded like regular "Pandoors" and "fierce hussars"—fairies, like the persecutors of the "culprit fay"—children, whose length bears no sort in proportion to their breadth and girth, &c., &c. "Vot a peeples!"

☞ There will be a large sale of Boots, Shoes, Leather Findings and Shoemaker's Tools, of the value of about $5,000 at Hood's Auction store to morrow, (Friday,) at 10 o'clock A. M. Purchasers of bills of $100 and over will get credit for sixty days on endorsed paper. Dealers in the articles should be on hand, as the sale will be positive, the goods being sold by the Sheriff.

CHAPMAN'S SECTIONAL MAP OF IOWA.—Our enterprising friend, SILAS CHAPMAN, not having the fear of "sectionalism" before his eyes, keeps on the even tenor of his way, making Sectional Maps. He is just getting out the eleventh thousand of his Map of Wisconsin since 1st of January last, and has now found time also to prepare a very handsome and accurate Map of Iowa, for a copy of which we are indebted to him.

PROPELLER ALLEGHANY.—An unsuccessful attempt was made yesterday to launch the new propeller Alleghany, just completed at Jones' Ship Yard for the American Transportation Co. She started and went down the ways some 20 feet, where she seemed at dark inclined to stay awhile. "Better luck next time," when we will say more about her.

WOOD.—SAWED AND SPLIT.—We invite special attention to the advertisement of Messrs. GARDISER & BELL of wood for sale, sawed and split, ready for use.—Their establishment is a decided acquisition to the city, and the proprietors ought to be liberally patronized.

ESCAPED FROM JAIL.—A man named Bauer escaped from our jail yesterday morning. He was confined to await his trial at the September term of the Circuit Court for stealing paint brushes, and in some way got out of the jail yard. He had not been re-taken at the time of going to press last night.

FOR COLLINGWOOD.—The Niagara leaves for Collingwood to-morrow morning at 8 o'clock. Call on JESSUP for tickets, at corner of Main and Huron streets.

RAILROAD IRON.—The schooner Yankee Blade arrived yesterday from Buffalo with 250 tons of iron for the Mil. & Miss R. R.

FOR BUFFALO.—The propeller Niagara leaves for Buffalo this evening, at 5 o'clock. For passage, apply to JOHN GRIFFIN, Huron St.

City Auction Room. GREAT BARGAINS in a Leasehold House in the business part of Chestnut street, Second Ward. I have for sale a lot twenty-five feet front, being the east half of lot three (3) block forty-four, (44,) with the south half of lot 4 (four) same block, being the third lot above 5th, on Chestnut street. On it is a house and other improvements, as follows: A two story framed house, with eight rooms, with finished, good well, also, two years, a good shop, and a good barn, with an alley in rear. The property is worth a great deal of money—much more than the owner asks for it. I will sell it as a great, great bargain. To any one who wishes to purchase a business lot in the Second Ward, I can safely say, here is a great chance.

The price I will let you know by calling at my store, and also the terms. The rent has got to sell it, and will give some one a great bargain, on very easy terms. CALEB WALL, Agent. je21

C TY LAND OFFICE. THE SECOND SALE OF LOTS in Murray's addition, First Ward, takes place at my store on Thursday, June 26th, at 10 o'clock. This offers you another opportunity to obtain some of those valuable lots, at a very low price. There has been thirty-two lots sold, most of which will be improved soon, then the lots will sell for double what they are now selling for. This is always the case in all of our additions, and always will be. And again, the new City Park is expected to be completed in the course of time, and when that is done lots there will sell for four times what they are now selling for. These are all facts and worth your serious consideration. Every person should avail themselves of the next sale and get a lot.

The terms are exceedingly easy, only one-fifth cash, balance 1, 2, 3 and 4 years with 7 per cent interest. Upon such terms, and at the prices that lots sell, it seems to me everybody ought to secure a home.

Before the day of sale the lots can be purchased at private sale. CALEB WALL.

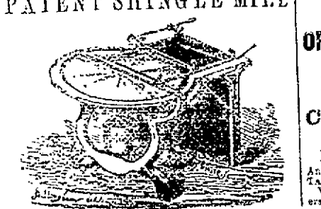
PATENT SHINGLE MILL



EVARTS & BUTLER,
PROPRIETORS & MANUFACTURERS,
CHICAGO, ILLINOIS.

THE SMOOTHNESS OF THE WORK WHICH GIVES this Mill unsurpassed, is produced by making the cut in the direction of the fibre of the wood.

The ease with which wood is worked in that direction is self-speed of execution; and the flexibility of the shingle, either as removes the saw, so that it may be ground with the edge, costs so as to cut away but little of the wood.

These Shingles now made with this mill sell in this market seventy-five cents per thousand higher than any other sawed Shingles.

The mill is made entirely of iron—strong, simple and of the best workmanship, easily worked, and not liable to get out of order.

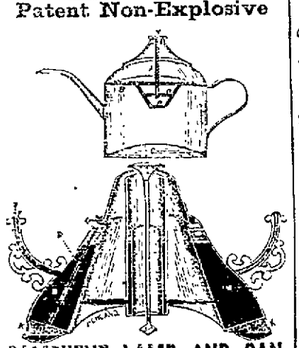
Patent Non-Explosive



CAMPHENE LAMP AND CAN.

IN SECURING TO THE PUBLIC the almost long needed improvement in burning Camphene, we consider the safety and many advantages to be obtained in the use of these Lamps and Cans in preference to the common Lamps and Cans now in use, a great benefit to community, as it is generally conceded that Camphene yields the clearest and most brill ant light of any known substance—and the only objection to its use and adoption in families is its explosive tendency, which this improvement most happily removes.

The Lamps are suitable for Churches, Public Halls, Stores, Parlors, and ordinary family use.
